

Your Subject

Our subject range spans the breadth of programming technologies, from Adobe design tools to languages and frameworks such as JAVA .NET, XML and SQL.

Your Level

You will note that within almost all subject categories, training is offered at multiple skill levels.

Your Location

We normally train on client sites. This can be anywhere from Ireland to Kuwait, from Latvia to Spain.

Your Language

In addition to English, we offer trainers whose mother languages are French, German, Italian and Spanish. The possibilities vary further depending on the topic. Where required we identify local teaching talent to meet client objectives in the local language.
